The Senior Class presents "The 1955 Virgilian"

Alma Mater

Beneath the hills of Virgil
Our school stands proud and fair,
Ever symbolizing faith and honor true.
As we stand within her portals,
The love and friendship there,
We remember and again our pledge renew.

To the school of our hearts,
To our comrades fair,
Hail ! Hail ! Hail !
To the teachers we know,
And the joys we share,
Hail ! Hail ! Hail !

Hail, Alma Mater, we sing to thee
Strong in our love we will ever be,
Loyal and brave to eternity,
Hail ! Hail ! Hail !

VIRGIL CENTRAL SCHOOL

VIRGIL — NEW YORK

DEDICATION

We the senior class, wish to dedicate this, the 1955 Virgilian, to Miss Shirley Druckenbrod, who has shown a deep interest in our problems, given so freely of her time and patience, and joined in our fun and laughter.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

To the class of '55:

My sincere congratulations to the students of Virgil Central School, especially the Year-Book Staff of '55, for the splendid whole-hearted effort they have given to produce this fine book and to make it a success.

With advancing years memories of people, places, and times have a way of becoming more and more elusive. This book will long serve as a pleasant reminder of the many good times that might otherwise be forgotten.

To the graduating class of '55- my best wishes for your continued success. May the success that you have attained in Virgil Central School be only a small preview of what the future holds in store for you.

CLASS HISTORY

One bright sunny September day in 1943, Mrs. Cary welcomed Barbara Hauck, Phyllis Hauck, Helen Holler, Elywn Kentch, Alison Munson, Constance Munson, Richard Osbeck, Delphene Pond, Marian Rorapaugh, and Phyllis Vincent to first grade.

Mrs. Gingrich, Mrs. Blayda, and Mrs. Vincent taught us the fundamentals we needed to learn.

Sixth grade brought us two new arrivals to our class, Robert Carpenter and Robert Pierce.

In the seventh grade Harry Stewart joined us from Cortland High School. That year we visited Cooperstown and started to raise money for our Albany trip.

Eighth grade found us with four different math and science teachers during the year. The event of the year was our trip to Albany where we toured the Capitol buildings, state office buildings, and Howes Caverns. June found us participating in our own graduation on Class Night. Helen Mary Seager was our valedictorian and Alison Munson our salutatorian.

We started off our freshman year by electing Miss McBride as our advisor and Richard Osbeck as president. That year we had a cafeteria supper, a movie, and we also sold gold and maroon school pennants. During our freshman and sophomore years the boys' and girls' homerooms were separated.

During our sophomore year we had a cafeteria supper, a movie, and we rented the skating rink. We enjoyed a happy year with Miss Walters as our advisor and Harry Stewart as president.

Our junior year started off with the arrival of our class rings on the third day of school. This year we helped raise the amount in our treasury by holding a spaghetti supper and a movie, "Hit the Hay" but the big event of the year was the Junior Prom, "Evening In Paris", complete with a sidewalk cafe. Robert Carpenter and Helen Holler were crowned king and queen by the previous years' king and queen, Julian Elliott and Hilda Hutchings. Phyllis Vincent and Alison Munson, runners-up, led everyone in the Grand March. In June we had a junior-senior picnic at Chenango State Park and a class picnic at Otisco Lake and Suburban Park.

Our senior year brought us Rosemary Reeve from Cortland High School and Bruce Hollenbeck. The fall of this year found us selling magazines and presenting a play. The three-act play, "Shoot The Works", directed by Mrs. Fowler was a success. These two activities helped our treasury total as well as gave everyone much fun. A supper was also given. During the year we prospered well under Miss Druckenbrod as advisor, and Robert Carpenter as president.

As the morning of Good Friday dawned, it found eight girls and six boys getting ready to spend four wonderful days of fun and adventure on their senior trip in Washington D.C.

All too soon; however, the year had sped away leaving behind twelve years of fun, and now it is almost time for us to graduate and seek our way in the world.

As we turned to say, "Good-by", our memories drifted back with thanks to the parents, teachers, and friends who had helped us prepare during twelve years for this final night of graduation.

Last Will and Testament,

We the class of 1955 of the School of Virgil in the County of Cortland, and State of New York, being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner following:

We, the senior class, will to the Junior class all the joys of being a senior.
We, the senior class, will to the Sophomore class the hope of having a successful Junior Prom.
We, the senior class, will to the Freshman class the pleasure of being in high school three more years.

I, Robert Carpenter, will my ability to get along with the girls to Bill Doak, who seems to be doing all right by himself.
I, Barbara Hauck, will my golden waves to Helen Strickland.
I, Phyllis Hauck, will my tininess to Tom Van Gorder.
I, Helen Holler, will my high marks in American History to Neil Reynolds.
I, Elywn Kentch, will my devilish ways to Carl Congdon.
I, Alison Munson, will my dark, wavy hair to Leon Rounds.
I, Constance Munson, will being able to go steady for such a long time to Jane Davis.
I, Richard Osbeck, will my ability to play basketball to Arthur Parker.
I, Robert Pierce, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Fowler to Margie Ferguson.
I. Delphene Pond, will my thinness to Norma Inman.
I, Rosemary Reeve, will my calmness to Betty Scott.
I, Marian Rorapaugh, will my "happy-go-lucky" ways to Bill Sherman.
I, Phyllis Vincent, will my laugh to Peggy Holler.

We, the senior class, will to Mr. Anderson a homeroom full of serious minded pupils.
We, the senior class, will to Mrs. Fowler quieter senior play rehearsals.
We, the senior class, will to Miss Druckenbrod a typing room full of working typewriters.
We, the senior class, will to Mr. Caslick a more talkative American History class.
We, the senior class, will to Mr. Ames a class of well mannered boys.
We, the senior class, will to Mrs. Wolcott a clean and quiet cafeteria.
We, the senior class, will to Mrs. Wilcox a quiet and peaceful minded art class.
We, the senior class, will to Mrs. Wilson a more co-operative band and chorus.

In Witness Whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our name the 27th day of June in the year Nineteen Hundred and fifty-five.

The Seniors

CLASS PROPHECY

Helen Holler decided on a business career,
Now she's riding in "whistle" gear.
At last she found a real nice boy,
Who has made her life full of joy.

Robert Carpenter, our oldest member,
Hates like heck to do milking in December.
He and his spouse settled down by the sea,
And now they have children numbering to three.

Phyllis Vincent, a nice young lass,
Attended a beauticians class,
Now she is curling everyone's hair,
In hopes that money will come from there.

Robert Pierce, a constructor was he,
Built a house for you and me.
Although he likes his work so well,
Not much was good enough to sell.

Delphene Pond, a nice lass,
Will soon be at the head of her nurse's class.
And now she has her R. N. degree,
She's a good nurse, don't you agree?

Alison Munson, tall, dark, and handsome was he,
Soon one of the Navy's top men he'll be.
Who will someday own a farm,
And build many a barn.

Constance Munson, a friendly lass,
Is the head of the mother's class.
Of course she married long before,
And now has children numbering four.

Richard Osbeck, to Morrisville did go,
And learned to be just like a pro.
Later on with all his knowledge,
He started a first-rate farmers' college.

Marian Rorapaugh decided to teach,
She got herself a nice job down by the beach.
She liked little children by the score,
And soon after we found her the mom of four.

Phyllis Hauck, the smallest lass,
Went into work with the grocer's cash,
And now, by the fire she sits,
Knitting sweaters for two bits.

Elwyn Kentch, a friendly chap,
Is now traveling with the use of a map.
Later on he will meet a girl,
Who will put his head in a whirl.

Barbara Hauck, the blonde of the class,
Will soon be among the swithchboard mass.
And then to her door did come,
The man who was to be her lifelong chum.

Rosemary Reeve to work did go,
To save her money by the score.
One day she took a vow at the minister's house,
To become the perfect spouse.
